

SUMMER SCHOOL: GLOBAL SURGERY

UNIVERSITY MEDICAL CENTER UTRECHT
8- 12 JULY 2019

Join our contest to win free participation in the Global Surgery course of Utrecht Summer School: hand in a research proposal!

We hereby announce a contest for the best research proposal in the field of Global Surgery, linked to the Global Surgery Summer School (July 8-12 2019 in Utrecht)

Further information

As a winner of this contest you will...

- Win a full course waiver in the Global Surgery Summer School of 2019 (i.e. free participation at the value of € 750.00)
- Receive an additional €500 to spend on travel expenses or your research project
- Meet researchers that could potentially provide funding for your project proposal

How to participate:

- Draft a research proposal in line with WHO guidelines (https://www.who.int/rpc/research_ethics/format_rp/en/); provide as many details of your plan as possible
- Make sure your research question and proposed methodology are up to date with current developments in the field of Global Surgery and could, with adequate funding, potentially be conducted in the near future
- The proposal will be judged on its quality in style and content, originality as well as feasibility
- The proposal should be written for a new project; we won't accept proposals for research projects that have already commenced
- Any questions? Feel free to contact us at globalsurgery@umcutrecht.nl
- Send your proposal to globalsurgery@umcutrecht.nl before May 1.

The winner will be announced by May 15!
